

Application for The Masters Degree
Applied Cognition and Neuroscience Assistantship Funding Award
(note this Award is based upon the availability of funds)

Application Deadline: First Day of Spring Semester (but applications accepted through August 1)
Award Start Date: September 1 (of year Application Submitted) or January 1 (of year immediately following the year in which the Application was Submitted).

Eligibility. You are only eligible to apply for the ACN assistantship if: (1) you are (or will be) a full-time ACN masters student (i.e., taking 9 credit hours per semester) beginning September 1, (2) you have taken no more than 3 courses in the ACN program by August 1.

Student Name: _____ Student ID #: _____

Undergraduate University: _____ Undergraduate Major: _____

Undergraduate GPA: _____ GRE Scores (optional): _____

Proposed Specialization Area in Masters ACN Program: _____

If you are currently enrolled in the Masters' ACN Program, list each course you have taken, the semester you took that course, and the grade you received.

Course Title	Semester	Grade
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

After you receive your Masters Degree in Applied Cognition and Neuroscience, what are your long-term career objectives?

Provide a brief statement of how your undergraduate work will prepare you for pursuing the ACN Masters Degree in the space below.

Please attach any additional information regarding which could be helpful to evaluating your application to this document (e.g., Vita, Additional Statements, Reference Letters).